

It Might As Well Rain Until September

(Carol King 1962)

Starting Note Sing F

Dm// F+
What shall I write? What can I say?
F G7 Gm7 C7
How can I tell you how much I miss you?

Refrain (speed up)
F Gm7 F Gm7
The weather here has been as nice as it can be.
F Gm7 F7
Although it doesn't really matter much to me.
Bb Bbm6 F G7
For all the fun I'll have while you're so far away.
C#7 C7 F Gm7
It might as well rain until September.

F Gm7 F Gm7
I don't need sunny skies for things I have to do.
F Gm7 F7
'Cause I stay home the whole day long and think of you.
Bb Bbm6 F G7
As far as I'm concerned each day's a rainy day,
C#7 C7 F
so it might as well rain until September.

Bridge

C#7 F#
My friends look forward to their picnic's on the beach.
C#7 F#
Yes, everybody loves the summertime.
D7 G
But you know darling while your arms are out of reach,
D7 G Gm7 C7
the summer isn't any friend of mine.

F Gm7 F Gm7
It doesn't matter whether skies are grey or blue.
F Gm7 F7
It's raining in my heart 'cause I can't be with you.
Bb Bbm6 F G7
I'm only living for the day you're home to stay,
C#7 C7 F
So, it might as well rain until September.
F Dm F
September, September, September, oh,
C#7 C7 F
it might as well rain until September
